HOMESCHOOL PLANNER

*While they are formatted a little differently, both the landscape and portrait planners include the same pages. Both formats are 156 pages long and should be printed front to back.

I am including more images of the portrait format only because it was easier to get a close-up of the pages so you could see them clearly.

GETTING ORGANIZED

section includes:

- Academic and Character Goals for up to 4 children
- Curriculum Options and Choices for up to 4 children
- Organize and Plan the Year for field trips, read alouds, shopping lists, websites/ passwords, and space for individual months from August through July {Most headings are editable in two of the files.}
- Daily Routines for August-December & January-July {editable in two files}
- Keeping Track of Goals & Grades page
- Keeping Track of Chores page
- Calendar page
- Attendance Record page

PLANNING PAGES

include:

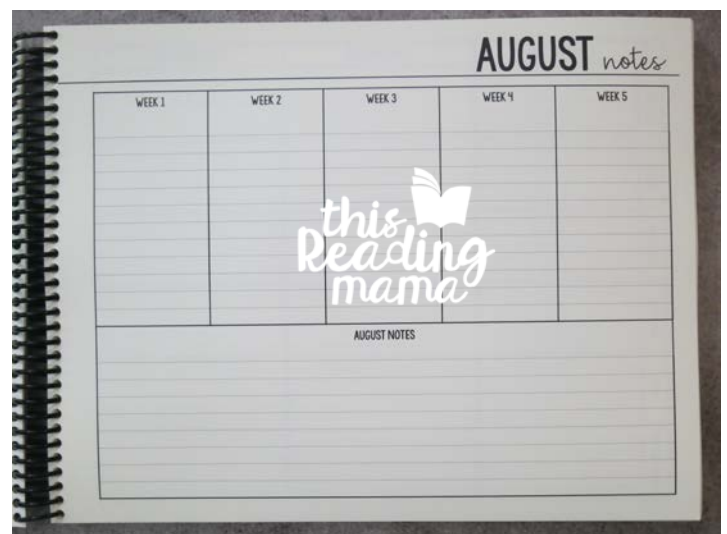

- A monthly calendar with space to write notes {see pictures below}
- Planning pages for each day {see pictures on the next page of this file}

PORTRAIT ORIENTATION

quick homeschool tips are included on each monthly calendar.

PLANNING PAGES

a closer look

Editable fields are included for six different subjects. In our personal planner, I included

- 1-Independent Work
- 2-Reading
- 3-Word Work
- 4-Writing
- 5-Math
- 6-History/Science

You are welcome to edit those fields to include any subjects you need. Once you fill in the first page, all the rest of the months will auto-fill for you!

FOR NEXT YEAR

section includes:

If you're like me, you'll start dreaming about next year before this school year is over. Here's a great place to write those dreams and plans. {See examples below}

- "A Quick Look Ahead" August calendar
- An "Ideas for Next Year" Page
- "Next Year by Month" pages for August through July
- 3 "Room for Notes" Pages
